

Senior Medical Advisor . Specialty Pharma

Permanent role, office based M4 Corridor

An experienced Pharmaceutical Physician is required to join the Specialty Pharma division of a top pharmaceutical company who has seen significant growth within recent years, as a Senior Medical Advisor.

As the Senior Medical Advisor you will be aligned to an area within the company's exciting portfolio and pipeline where you will be the key scientific expert for the therapy area, liaising with KOLs, and providing medical input into the medical affairs plans.

You will be medically qualified with GMC registration and relevant clinical experience. You will need to demonstrate a successful track record in Medical Affairs within the pharmaceutical industry. Experience in specialty pharma therapy areas would be a distinct advantage, but is not a pre-requisite.

The Specialty Pharma division benefits from having a small company feel with a large company backing. It is a business where you can expect to be challenged and rewarded from this dynamic environment.
